

Native Artists in the Schools

Coleen John

Native Arts and Crafts

“My work is a reflection of my traditional Ukwehúwe (Iroquois) heritage. I am inspired by yesterday, today, and tomorrow.” Residencies and workshops are designed by grade levels and curriculum connections to be engaging, interactive and educational for all students. Possible projects include Corn Husk Dolls, Dream Catchers, Medicine Pouches, Bead Work, or Contemporary Iroquois Mixed Media projects. Available to students in upper grades is Iroquois silver brooches (extra fee per student for silver or copper).

Age Range: K-12

Academic Standards: Native Studies, Culture, Native Language, Visual Arts, Crafts

Time Requirement: 45 minutes workshops to residencies

Class Size: 30

Cost: $200 for single presentation
 $320 per day (five 45-minute workshops)
 $1,200 per week (five 45-minute workshops
 @ 5 days)
 Round Trip Mileage