

M.O.C. 2011-2012

Music from Our Culture

Parents Letter

Each year we are getting bigger and better. Highlights of our 2010-2011 season include a concert this past April, to a full house of 150 people; an outreach performance at the Anna John Nursing Home; and a trip to see the Lakota Sioux Indian Dance Theatre at the Fox Cities Performing Arts Center. Our summer camp had 42 students from more than 12 different schools coming together. The children wrote their own song, "The Junk Food Blues" and prepared for an invited performance at the Wisconsin State Fair. The children did an amazing job at the State Fair, singing traditional Iroquois social songs, Indian Hymns, Pow wow drum, Native Flute, and their famous "Junk Food Blues".
